Daniel Lee Miller Enjoyed friends, music and animals

By Monitor staff & wire

August 06, 2006 10:00AM

MANCHESTER - Daniel Lee Miller passed away Thursday, Aug. 3, 2006, at the Elliott Hospital in Manchester after a three-month, heroic fight to live.

Daniel Miller was born Feb. 23, 1968, in Lewiston, Maine, the son of Robert Lee Miller and Shirley Ann Goding. He was a foster child, raised most of his life by Tina Butcher in St. Augustine, Fla.

Daniel spent most of his adult years living in Lewiston Maine, Concord and Manchester. Daniel worked in the service industries until the time of his disability. Daniel had many talents and hobbies. He was an artist who drew hundreds of futuristic cars. He was a model car builder. He enjoyed friends, music, travel, pool, dancing, karaoke, dining out, nature and animals. He was a Pentecostal Christian by faith but trained to the level of Reiki master teacher. Daniel is survived by several foster siblings, his cat, Checkers, and longtime friend Jon Cavicchi of Penacook. Donations in his memory can be sent to the Concord SPCA, 130 Washington St., Penacook 03303. Memorial site: danielmiller.info.
